Rally In The Valley

Our fundraising event will be in 4 weeks. That gives us plenty of time to get the excitement going on our project. This could be our signature event for years to come. We need to focus on having fun and creating a great event for the family. Our website is up. People can go online and buy their ticket. Facebook will be the means for all our drivers to connect with the town and other drivers. It should be a lot of fun for us. Please keep the day open for helping with whatever needs to be done. Let's get ready to rumble!

Cultivating Inclusion
A Community Farming Project

A New Opportunity For Us

We have a volunteer need and we are going to answer it. CULTIVATING INCLUSION is a one of a kind project that provides vocational training and employment opportunities for youth and adults with special needs. For those of you that would like to help out, we will meet them there at the farm in Alta Murrieta at 9AM. Bring water, hat, gloves. See all of you there. This might be really fun! 29775 Alta Murrieta Drive
